BIOGRAPHY

Anakita Escalante was born in Sydney, with Australian and Philippine background. Throughout school, Anakita was always been known as the “arty” one and continuously won many awards throughout her childhood until she graduated from High School. After her school years were over, Anakita then went on to study Visual Arts Cert III, Design Cert IV and Diploma of Fine Arts at Orange TAFE. Anakita became the top of her class, with many distinctions and was nominated for best student throughout NSW.

For Anakita, it all began with Anime cartoons, copying and teaching herself how to draw them. She then pursued other styles of Art, learning different techniques and exploring her imagination. Through trial and error, exploring different subjects and styles, Anakita discovered that painting Landscapes and animals is what she loves most
