

Dinner is being served with art on the menu

➔ MASTERCHEF'S Alvin Quah will be making a meal of art at Neutral Bay next week.

Quah will serve up three main courses to guests at the first Dinner with the Artist event at Traffic Jam Galleries. Guests will have pre-dinner drinks in the gallery before moving upstairs to a private dining room above the gallery.

Hosting the dinner will be artist Danielle McManus who will unveil some of her new works. A fan of her work, Quah will also choose the wines and guests will also be treated to some surprise art on their dinner plates.

The dinner is booked out.
