

SEPTEMBER 13, 2011

the planner

sat 14

9AM | HEROES AND ZEROS
 What would have become of the great artists and musicians if they'd listened to their parents? Such is the question behind Nigel Sense's Heroes and Zeros, in which artist and superheroes do battle across intensely coloured collages.
UNTIL SEPTEMBER 16, MONDAY-SATURDAY, 9AM-6PM, CHARLES HEWITT GALLERY, 48A-54 CHAPEL STREET, MARRICKVILLE, CHARLESHEWITT.COM.AU, 9565 2050.

11AM | JOHN FRIES MEMORIAL PRIZE
 It's a rare occurrence when art and sport join forces, but it has been a winning move for artists Jess Olivier and Hayley Forward, whose video work Harlequin V's Visitors is a video work of the Sydney Chamber Choir at Harlequin's home ground in Campbelltown (pictured). The prize carries a $10,000 bounty for emerging artists, in the fourth year of the competition run by Copyright Agency and Viscopy.
11AM-5PM, GAFFA GALLERY, 281 CLARENCE STREET, CITY, GAFFA.COM.AU, 9283 4273.

11AM | LEFTSKI FEST
 The first of its kind to hit the weekend-long party brings beats with pro skiers, fancy-dress and hot tubs. Manning the decks at Kele, Hermitude and Alison Wonderland more music from World's End Primaries, Knees Club and Canyons.
FRIDAY AND TODAY, THREDBO VILLAGE, THREDBO.COM.AU, FESTIVAL WISDOM, ACCOMMODATION AND PACKAGES

8PM | MARK
 The former guitar virtuoso and electronic act (pictured) is one of the highlights for Brisbane's Bigsound Festival. Fortunately, McGuire is back with other forward-thinking acts such as Pimmon and G. THE SQUARE, CORNER OF GARDEN STREETS, HAYMARKET, THE SQUARE SYDNEY, 9283 4273.

