

Tracy Dods

Queensland-born painter Tracy Dods' work questions human nature. Her distinct, dreamlike seascapes often depict figures walking beside an expansive ocean. Her next exhibition Blue sky laws shows at South Yarra Art House in Victoria from 10 to 31 March 2016.

Art Edit says: "Tracy's expansive oceans bring to mind ideas of stasis and change, calmness and chaos, power and powerlessness. Her paintings combine social observation, poignant symbolic metaphor and just a dash of quirky humour, throwing a spotlight on contemporary human experience."
