tjg is proud to be associated with Morrisons Mercedes of Chatswood.

We are currently exhibiting works by abstract Artist Nicholas Daunt in their showroom.

There has been a wonderful response to the works, both by clients at the Mercedes and traffic jam collectors.

In the meantime, if you are in the area, we hope you have a moment to view Nicholas' stunning works.

Dean is renowned for his incredibly bold and passionate use of colour which creates a true 'feel good' factor. Dean has been developing his distinctly unique style over the past 30 years. His work has been the subject of many imitators.

Dean's first solo exhibition in China was by invitation from the Chinese Government in Guangzhou. Dean's first Museum Exhibition was in 2003. It was titled 'Power of the Earth' at the Guangdong Museum of Art in China. This exhibition was officially recognised by the National Gallery of Australian Art, Canberra and recorded in the Museum's archives.
