November

During November each year, November is responsible for the sprouting of moustaches on thousands of men's faces in Australia and around the world. The aim of which is to raise vital funds and awareness for men's health, specifically prostate cancer and male mental health.

Parking

Lots of people ask us about parking close to the gallery, please click the link below, as there are lots of spots in the side streets and sometimes in front of the gallery on Tramway Lane.

Worlds Apart...

"Art doesn't alter things. It points things out, but it doesn't alter them. It can't, no matter what a painter wants to do."

Arthur Boyd
 1920 - 1999

James Ainslie

Our November exhibition 'THERE AND BACK AGAIN' features new works by Artists, James Ainslie and Ji Chen.

James Ainslie's preferred palette is acrylic paint on paper, with the occasional use of mixed media. His forte is modern realism, although he also produces abstract art. Ainslie's paintings resonate with an inherent passion for the country's unique beauty, particularly the sandy dunes and reflective waters of Queensland and South Australia.

Here is an image of the house that John Cottrell designed the exterior walls for.
 This amazing property sits on top of a hill behind Mullumbimby, with spectacular views all the way to Byron and backs onto a huge mountain.
 The architects are Allen Jack + Cottrell. The work was commissioned by the Owner who has a large collection of John Cottrell's work .

Ji Chen

Ji Chen was born in Shanghai. Ji and his family arrived in Australia in 1989. Here the strong colour and bright light of the Australian landscape provided a new artistic experience - 'In Australia the weather and therefore the landscape is the best teacher. I look and I learn'. Ji's unique style is his trademark- the loving softness, born of a freshness of eye and a passion for open spaces. His love and passion for the vistas and vast horizons of the Australian landscape is obvious in his works.
