Congratulations to James Parrett

The Montalto Sculpture Prize is an annual acquisitive sculpture prize set in the grounds of the Montalto Winery and Olive Grove in Red Hill South on the Mornington Peninsula in Victoria. Its been held for over ten years. This year James Parrett has been selected as a finalist for the 2014 Montalto Sculpture Prize, and we congratulate him on this honour.

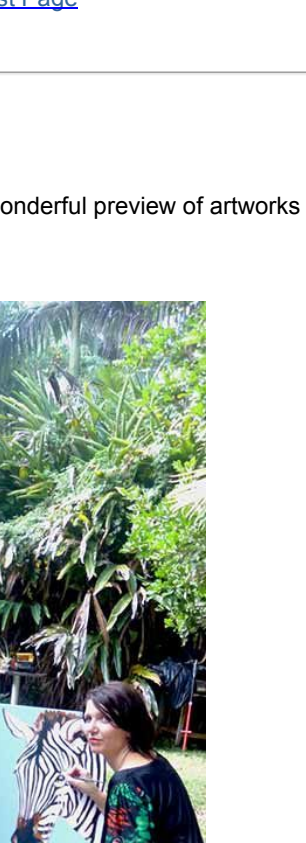

When speaking with James about the prize itself, he had the following to say:
"As mentioned I always enjoy being in this show. You get to know the people involved over the years so it is always nice to see them. I also get to see or meet new sculptors which is a never bad thing. I thought it was a really solid show this year and the winner was a good piece."
