NEW WORK J VALENZUELA DIDI

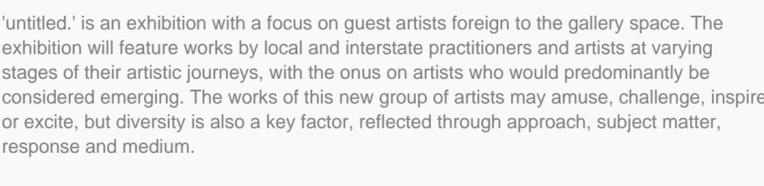

Just arrived at the gallery Brisbane based artist J Valenzuela Didi's KAFF Prize Finalist work 'Getting used to the dust in your lungs', 92 x 122cm, acrylic on linen.

"I've recently become gripped by the notion that until we are all free, we are none of us free. The modern world is so marred by disparity and oppression that it has become easy to be indifferent to the suffering of others. We hide ourselves from the world outside the wire, beyond the fabricated happiness of our own sanctuaries. But the reality stubbornly lingers, haunting our comfortable existence: we are none of us free. And then all that is left is silence and isolation." - J Didi

UPCOMING EXHIBITION UNTITLED

'untitled.' is an exhibition with a focus on guest artists foreign to the gallery space. The exhibition will feature works by local and interstate practitioners and artists at varying stages of their artistic journeys, with the onus on artists who would predominantly be considered emerging. The works of this new group of artists may amuse, challenge, inspire or excite, but diversity is also a key factor, reflected through approach, subject matter, response and medium.
