

DANIELLE McMANUS - 'Nature's Whimsy'

Opening Saturday 9th June 2 - 4pm

Born in Sydney, Danielle McManus intertwines experiences from everyday life with her Maltese heritage to produce beautifully detailed artworks that can be read as both whimsical and simultaneously shrouded in depth and innuendo.

This body of work reflects Danielle's love of mixed media incorporating charcoal, pastels, oils, acrylics and wash papers. The stories that unfold within her works are rendered in a clean, rich colour palette with Danielle's trademark native flowers and small animals often camouflaged waiting to be discovered.

These offerings we believe exposes a strength and confidence in the handling of both subject and medium reflecting Danielle's growth as an artist and showcases the largest and most detailed charcoal offering of her career to date.

Dates: 6 June - 24 June

Opening event: Saturday 9 June 2 - 4pm Where: traffic jam galleries Neutral Bay

NOW IS THE TIME

Art has a transformative nature, one work has the power to alter an entire space and one's mood and the interaction of those that view the work, it is a wonderful way to enliven and enhance any room or area especially in a work place environment such as your reception, office or boardroom areas.

Did you know small businesses with a turnover of less than $ 10 million have the opportunity to address a $ 20,000.00 instant asset write off. To make sure that this applies to your business, seeking tax advice would be recommended.
